Luncheon And Program Held By Club Group

The first meeting of the de la Palma chapter of the What to Read club was held Tuesday morning at 9:30 at the Country club with Mrs. Rufus Ransome as hostess.

An interesting and beneficial business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. R. A. Porter. Following the completion of business, Mrs. Volney Taylor, director of the club, assumed charge for the program.

A report given by Mrs. Lawrence Brady covered in detail the life and works of Buddha. "For the Buddhists there is neither the hope of heaven nor the fear of hell. For the consequence of his own action, there is only one relief—cessation of individual consciousness."

Mrs. Taylor reviewed the life of Joaquin Miller, reading a number of his most interesting poems. Miss Charlotte Paxton, house guest of Mrs. Howard Cummins, sang two charming solos, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Taylor.

The luncheon, which was served in the dining room of the club, followed the program. The table with covers placed for 14, was tastefully arranged with garden flowers.

Mrs. G. D. Sutton will be hostess Tuesday morning, Oct. 20 at her home, Tres Palmas.

Luncheon Is First Event Of New Year

HARLINGEN, Oct. 7.—The Woman's Building was at its prettiest Saturday afternoon for the assembly luncheon beginning the new year program of the Literary and Fine Arts club. The club colors of orchid and silver were displayed in bouquets of centzia in silver vases. The centzia is the club flower and this beautiful native blossom was arranged in tall floor baskets and in a silver bowl. Other tall silver vases held roses in shades of pink, and one silver vase as especially lovely, filled with Columbia rose buds. Covers and place cards numbered 28.

Mrs. McKenna, director of the program, presided, introducing the honor guest, Mrs. Homer E. Smith, of Mission. The president, Mrs. Kent Manning gave greetings from the club. Mrs. Plimer made the response, Mrs. E. A. Crockett sang a very beautiful selection.

Roll call was answered by members, with a Valley Federation activity.

As federation was the subject of the day's program, Mrs. Homer Smith gave an address on "What the Federation Means to Club Women."

Mrs. Gerald McKenna gave a paper on this subject also. Members of the Junior Fine Arts club were guests and others were also invited.

CIRCLE OF LIGHT CEREMONY HELD

A beautiful ceremony was that of the Girl Reserves, in their Circle of Light ceremony. Reverend Lee gave an appropriate invocation. The choir, led by Warren E. Reitz, sang, "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Frank Chastain sang a beautiful solo.

Rev. Lee gave the creed of the Girl Reserves. A beautiful interpretation for each item was given. The church was darkened, and the president of the Reserves, Miss Louise Hill, led in a prayer. Miss Hill held her lighted candle, and the girls marched up, each one lighting her candle and joining the circle, which extended entirely around the large auditorium.

The song, "Follow the Glean," was the recessional march.

MRS. PITTMAN IS NEW MEMBER

Monday morning the execution board of the public library met at the Woman's Building at 9:30. Mrs. T. S. Herren presided.

One vacancy occurred on the board, and Mrs. H. P. Pittman was elected to fill this place. The librarian, Mrs. C. A. Macy gave a report. Miss Adele Ronecker donated 18 books. The story hour contemplated to be given in connection with the library will start during Book Week. Book Week begins November 15. An at home will be featured in that week. New books will be on display and entertainment will be arranged.
